

A Community Agent will visit you at home to discuss and help with:

- Mobility issues – where equipment, adaptations, or technology could support independence, or where, travel, social interaction and physical activity could sustain and improve wellbeing
- Practical living skills – after a significant life event, such as bereavement or hospital stay, supporting people to gain or regain practical skills such as paying bills, taking medication or getting to appointments
- Social inclusion – connecting people into one-to-one and group interactions or activities; or supporting the use of technology-based interaction and social media
- Healthy living – enabling or supporting people to prepare meals or linking individuals into community activities such as lunch clubs
- Caring for someone – for people new to caring or for people who have been caring for some time and struggling to cope in their changing role. Helping them to access practical support, information, advice and peer support
- Individual resilience – by providing advice and support that ensures correct entitlement to benefits and pension and increases personal safety and security.
